CATALOGUE

OF A

LARGE AND VALUABLE ASSORTMENT

OF

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN

COINS,

The entire remainder of the Stock of Coins saved from the great fire in the Potter Building, the property of the well known dealer,

WILLIAM P. BROWN.

THE WHOLE TO BE SOLD WITHOUT RESERVE, AT PUBLIC AUCTION,

BY

GEO. A. LEAVITT & CO.

AT CLINTON HALL, Eighth St. near Broadway,

ON MONDAY THE 20th OF MARCH, 1882,

COMMENCING AT 7 O'CLOCK,

CATALOGUED BY SCOTT & COMPANY.

Bids Executed by the Auctioneers and all Coin Dealers.

1882.

PREFACE.

In many respects this is the most peculiar lot of coins ever offered at public auction. in that it consists of quantities of rare pieces without the ordinary accompaniment of common ones, thus we find no less than four 1799 cents, and equal or greater quantities of other rare dates; also some extraordinary fine specimens of commoner pieces, again there is a fine line of the rarest varieties of Confederate bills, all the common ones having been consumed by fire. The proof sets are desirable and being offered in quantity enables collectors to purchase at dealers prices. Before closing we wish to call speeial attention to the lots of copper coins at the commencement of the sale, these are very different to the bunched lots usually catalogued in auction sales, the pieces being such as were sold at retail from 25e. each and upwards, which accounts for their being preserved in the safe, everything outside having been consumed by the great fire.

Collectors living at too great a distance from New York to attend in person, may have their orders executed by the auctioneers, Messrs. Scott & Co.; or other dealers, for a commission of 10 per cent. on amounts under $100—over $100, 5 per cent.—a uniform charge of fifty cents made on any amount under $5.

In reference to the method of selling at auction, we would say that each lot is sold to the highest bidder, at so much for each coin in the lot, so if you desire a lot of coins which contains 10 pieces and you wish to pay $1.00 for it, you should bid 10 cents each. Always state your highest price, relying on the honor of those you employ to make the purchase for you at the lowest possible figure.

The coins will be on exhibition at the Auction Rooms, on the day of sale, from 10 A. M. to 5 P. M.

SCOTT & COMPANY.

New York, March 1, 1882.

Note.—Every coin catalogued is warranted genuine.
